

In 2006, Coca-Cola Amatil (CCA) delivered a solid result driven by a strong second half trading performance and successful new product launches. CCA continues to focus on innovation and expansion of the brand portfolio, increasing the availability of products while striving to become the supplier of choice every time to our customers. In doing so, CCA is able to refresh, energise and nourish our consumers – all day every day.

About CCA

CCA is the largest non-alcoholic beverage company in the Asia-Pacific region and one of the world's top five Coca-Cola bottlers. CCA operates across 6 countries – Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, South Korea, Fiji and Papua New Guinea. In the past 5 years CCA has diversified its portfolio of products to include water, sports drinks, fruit juices, coffee, ready-to-drink teas and packaged ready-to-eat fruit and vegetable products. In August 2006, CCA established a joint venture with SABMiller, the world's second largest brewer, to distribute SABMiller's premium beer brands into Australia. CCA will also sell and distribute the brands of premium spirits distributor Maxxium from April 2007.

